

ASBURY PARK WILL HAVE AN ALL-STAR SHOW.

Asbury Park, July 10.—Society is eagerly looking forward to the early production of "As You Like It" in the Crow's Nest woods, on the border of Deal Lake. George C. Tyler has the matter well in hand now. He will be assisted by William Seymour, who was stage manager of the Saratoga for three years ago, and the cast will be "all stars."

The ministers who last week petitioned the City Fathers to shut off the Sunday evening concerts on the beach have gained their point, and for the present, at least, patrons of the board walk of a Sunday evening must content themselves with listening to such melody as may be extracted from the band playing "Old Hundred," "Doxology" and the like, the edict having been sent forth from the Councilman Board that only sacred music, with here and there a patriotic air, shall be permitted. This in deference to the religious spirit that pervades the community.

Isaac T. Smith, for the past fifty years general manager at Slam from this country, enjoying the sea breezes from the porches of an Ocean avenue hotel.

Allen D. Burrows, cashier of the Standard National Bank, New York, is among the arrivals at the Coleman House.

LONG BRANCH PLANS ARE COMPLETE.

Long Branch, July 10.—The Cycle Parade Committee was in session at Hollywood Wednesday evening, and completed final arrangements for holding the bicycle pageant on July 18. Only a few minor details will require adjustment. Joseph J. O'Donohue, Jr., has been selected grand marshal. The parade will form on Norwood avenue at 1 o'clock, the route depending on the condition of the roads. The Olympic Cycle Band, mounted on wheels, will lead the parade. Prizes are being purchased with the $2,000 subscribed, and the entries are such as to assure success.

General T. T. Eckert, who is summering at Elberton, is among the recent special prize contributors to the Horse Show.

Fred Hoey, of Hollywood, is going to give a lawn party July 25. A temporary platform will be erected on the lawn for dancing. The Hollywood Hotel is crowded, it being impossible to accommodate all applicants.

P. Sanford Ross, Newark, has taken possession of the "Takano Farm," Elberton, New York. This is the prettiest located villa in the neighborhood, and has a commanding view of the surrounding cottages.

Nelson Brown, Philadelphia, who will officiate as one of the judges of the Month County Horse Show, at Hollywood, arrived at Elberton for the season Tuesday.
